BRYAN'S INJUNCTION.

"I want every democrat who voted for me to vote for Parker. Our platform does not contain one thing that I would strike out of it. I want to tell every silver democrat that, while Parker will not give you all you want, Roosevelt will give nothing you want. I, for my part, shall not take the responsibility of four more years of Theodore Roosevelt."—From Bryan's Louisville Speech.

About Indians In The Far West.

KIAH'S CANYON, OCT. 11.—I have been away from home nearly five years and have been in many States and territories, but in all my travels the I. J. has followed me. Whether on the level forests of the North or the desert plains of the West, it has been my welcome visitor.

For the last year I have been engaged as a teacher among the Mogul Indians of Arizona. The Moguls are a quiet, peaceable tribe of Indians who love their cornfields and live better than warlike, consequently they have been crowded and driven back by their fierce neighbors, the Navahos and Apaches. In fact, so hard were they pressed by their hostile neighbors that they have built their houses on the highest peaks of the mesas with only a simple trail leading up to the village.

In time of war, the attacking party was met by a volley of arrows and showers of stones from the Moguls far above them. The Moguls bear a strong resemblance to the Japanese, both in appearance and in language. There is a tradition among the Mogul chiefs that years ago they lived across the sea, but being shipwrecked they were driven by fierce winds to the coast of Mexico and gradually fought their way to their present location. If this be true it might throw some light upon the much mooted question of the origin of the American Indian.

The Indian children are quiet and easily handled, many of them showing remarkable progress in their studies. We have children here not more than nine years old who read well in second reader, compose and write nice little letters to their friends and in many ways are as far advanced as their little white cousins. One of our cutest Indians is Tiny, a fat little girl, with eyes brimming over with mischief and so black that they resemble the intensely black beads.

One night as I sat upon the door step thinking of home, the towering mesa frowned down upon me from above. Beyond the mesa the cedars stood like silent sentinels in the night. Far up the valley the sand hills reflected a silver sheen in the moonlight. As I sat there listening, dreaming, I was interrupted by a hand upon my arm and two shining black eyes looking up into my own. It was Tiny. Long we sat together in silence. I was dreaming of the "Old Kentucky Home far away," and Tiny was thinking of her own home, her home away up on the mountain top.

As your space is limited I must bring this letter to a close, but some time in the future I shall give you a description of the home-life of these Indians.

Truly yours,

LUCIEN M. LEWIS.

Mrs. Gilbert, who has been on the stage for upward of 60 years and who has decided to retire at the end of the present season—when she will be 81 years of age—has begun a farewell New York engagement at the Lyceum Theatre yesterday evening, which will continue for three weeks. She will appear in a play entitled "Granny," which Clyde Fitch has written especially for her. New York Democrat.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by all druggists.

One added to one equals one.
But of course, the one must be good.
Then add a divorce—
That's easy of course—
And one minus one equals one

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes such injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by all druggists.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectively and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup.

Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by all druggists.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President.

ALTON BROOKS PARKER, of New York.

For Vice President.

HENRY G. DAVIS, of West Virginia.

For Judge Fifth Appellate District, JUDGE JAMES E. CANTRELL, of Georgetown.

For Congress.

GEORGE G. GILBERT, of Shelby.

The most amusing feature of the campaign is the enigma of virtue which has turned the republican stomach side of its load of Hunterism inside out. When it is understood that those most responsible for Godfrey's overthrow are renegade democrats who have crowded to the front and driven the old line republicans from the patronage trough it becomes a hilarious farce. Hunter organized this State for victory for his party when his present assailants were not heard of. McKinley knew his real character when he sent him to Guatemala. The republicans of the 11th district were acquainted with his record when they sent him to Congress. The pore and salubrious Belknap knew him from the crown of his rascally head to the soles of his crooked feet and yet he entrusted him with the secret management of his campaign. But over night a spasm of virtue seizes the gang of Federal office holders and Hunter is thrown to the wolves. It will be hard to convince the decent people of Kentucky that he is any worse than his party.

ROOSEVELT wants to open the door of hope to every filthy Nigger in the land, but he does not hesitate to close it in the frightened face of every good woman in the South, who is in constant peril from these lecherous brutes, made more so by the social recognition given them by the president. They feel that the hand that can lift Booker Washington to an equality with the chief executive can reach out and protect them from the fury of the mob.

MR. CLEVELAND was the principal speaker at the democratic rally in New York City under the auspices of the Business Men's Parker and Davis Association. When he entered the hall the former president was given an ovation lasting seven minutes. His speech dealt with the fallacy of republican claims, and was a criticism of the party's policy in regard to the tariff, the Philippines and the Inter-oceanic waterway.

CHAIRMAN TAGGART, of the National democratic committee, in an interview in Indianapolis, said the democrats would carry New York, Indiana, Maryland, New Jersey and West Virginia. He expressed the utmost confidence in the election of Parker and Davis.

WHAT better ticket could a democrat want than that which will be found under the rooster—Parker, Davis, Cantrell and Gilbert—truly a big four Stamp in the circle under the rooster Tuesday, Nov. 8, and your vote will be recorded for them all.

THE secret of democratic political victory is the thoroughness with which the precincts are organized. Get the vote out in your immediate neighborhood and the balance of the State will take care of itself.

ICHNERG FAIRBANKS is going to honor Louisville with a speech. The weather began to get cooler as soon as the announcement was made.

Five hundred guests and members of the Harlem democratic club visited Judge Parker at Elmore Saturday.

Dr. Silas C. Swallow, the prohibition candidate for President of the United States, will speak in Louisville Nov. 1st.

Chairman Thomas Taggart, of the democratic national committee, is elated over the prospects of carrying the Hoosier State for Parker.

"Money ankle deep in Indiana is the only thing that can carry that State for Roosevelt and the republican ticket," says Senator Blackburn, who has been speaking in the Hoosier State.

The people of Panama are not satisfied with the United States' treaty and as a result of Secretary Taft's visit to the isthmus they hope to obtain a modification of the treaty, granting them important concessions.

E. B. Nagellin has withdrawn from the Senatorial race in the Mercer district.

The Taft-Wright cablegrams concerning Judge Parker's Philippine speech cost the government $570.

An express package, believed to have contained nearly $100,000, sent from national headquarters to the Kentucky Republican State Campaign Committee for use in Kentucky, is said to have been delivered. It is known that an express charge of $118 was paid. Richard P. Ernst, chairman of the Republican committee, was recently in the East.

Dr. J. H. Lackey, populist candidate for Congress in the First Kentucky district, has filed a petition with the Calloway county clerk to get his name on the official ballot. The matter has been referred to Attorney General Hays. A few days ago the attorney general decided that such petitions should be filed with the secretary of State 30 days before the election.

Rev. R. R. Noel hands on the following: Closed a meeting at Pleasant Point, 12 days, with 17 additions. Baptized in afternoon. Not much water.

Three candidates were with us part of the time; got two of them—Singleton and Proitt—on the mourners' bench, but couldn't move McCarty. He held his position, however. Good people down there. Not much politics. I heard a man say he thought there was to be an election of sheriff and superintendent of schools this fall, but that the residents were to be elected next year.

To The Democrats of The West End.

At the request of the democrats who petitioned me through the columns of the I. J. and the solicitation of others, I have decided to make the race for magistrate in the Hustonville magistrate district and will do all in my power to carry the banner of democracy to success if I am nominated. Thanking the friends who showed their confidence and good feeling by calling on me to make the race, I am very truly,
O. J. CROW.

Just as there are valuable strains in horses, cattle and other stock, so there are varieties of queen bees which are worth many hundred times their weight in gold. The most valuable strain is the Italian, and many Italian bee farmers demand and receive without question, prices ranging from $50 to $200 for a single queen bee of a certain kind. Such bees are sent all over the world. The owner of a bee farm near Ottawa, Canada, goes to Europe annually and brings back with him bees of an aggregate value of thousands of pounds. He is enabled through the agency of an Italian firm to effect an insurance upon the most valuable of his queens.—New York Herald.
